PORTION	Dessert is perfectly portioned. We don't like to put things in a box, but this one does not exceed the maximum of 2 x 2 x 2	Dessert could do with more (or less) per serving. Are you holding out on us?	Dessert portions vary wildly. Sure to provoke a fight once others find out that someone else got more.	Did you even read the prompt? Why is this this size?
TEXTURE	Perfect mouthfeel. Everything about this dessert feels right.	Texture is definitely reminiscent of a dessert. But neither good nor bad.	This dessert has a threatening aura. We are intrigued, but afraid to engage with it further.	Dessert feels strange and unfamiliar in a bad way.
FLAVOR	Amazing. Perfect. While showering your dessert in accolades, I have put the rest in a container to eat on the way home.	Dessert is pretty great, but not a life changing dessert.	Evokes an involuntary "meh" - one step above something store bought.	Yikes. Even the small portion can't save this dessert. Could we have less?
ORIGINALITY	We love a petite dessert that is not too much and not too little.	Dessert is average, lacks rizz. May never be noticed by the more popular desserts.	This dessert is the definition of basic, can you share the TikTok that you stole this recipe from?	Be honest, did you even make this? Is this from a box?
